Greensand Trust Talk: Dormice of Maulden Woods

Did you know that Maulden Woods are home to an endangered and much-loved mammal species – the dormouse?

Join our Greensand Trust Educational Volunteers Ann de Winter and Helen Gabler to hear how they have been monitoring and looking after these rare and beautiful creatures whose habitat is now under threat.

- Tickets £4 per person with tea & coffee provided - all proceeds go towards the environmental conservation work of The Greensand Trust. Parking charge of £1 applies.
- Book here:
